

Silly Sentences with Betty the Burrowing Owl

Fill in the blank sections with adjectives, nouns and verbs to uncover Betty the Burrowing Owl's story!

Definitions:

Verb- A verb is a sentence or phrase describing an action.

Example: 'run', 'look', 'feel', 'slow', or 'strong'

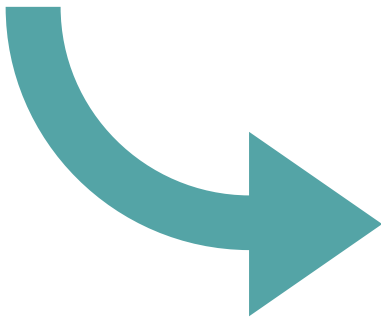

Noun- A noun is a person, place, or thing.

Example: 'dog', 'pumpkin', 'doctor', 'party', or 'home'

Adjective- An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

Example: 'big', 'boring', 'blue', 'quick', or 'obvious'

This is Betty and she is a Burrowing Owl
currently living
in Morro Bay,
California

THUD THUD THUD. Betty wakes up to the loud stomping of a _____ noun . Her underground home is still shaking when Betty decides to see what all this stomping is about. When she gets outside she sees _____ noun wearing _____ adjective . To her utter surprise, Betty doesn't say anything but "what are you doing." The _____ noun responds with " I'm so sorry ma'am I didn't realize this was your home, I'm just practicing _____ verb . Betty is confused and grumpy and decides to go on with her day. As betty is walking back to her underground nest in the burrows, she thinks she sees a _____ noun off in the distance. Betty rushes forwards to get a better view. Once Betty realizes it's her good friend Stu, who she hasn't seen in over a year, she gives him a great big _____ noun . The two go to a nearby restaurant to catch up. Stu, who is a Great owl, gets the Skunk while Betty gets the small rodent appetizer. The two talk and talk for hours until the waiter drops _____ noun on betty, and her whole outfit is drenched. The waiter apologizes; however, today is laundry day, and betty doesn't have any clean clothes. The two go to a nearby store. The only thing the store had in Bettys size, which is XXXXXS (because she is the smallest owl in North America) was a _____ noun in the color _____ adjective . Betty, unsure about this outfit choice, decides to wear it over her soggy clothes. Betty decides it has been a long day and wants to go home. Walking home, betty suddenly gets lifted off the ground. She is in the claws of a big _____ noun and is being taken to _____ noun . Where all of her friends are waiting to greet her. Its Betty's birthday ! And her friends threw her a surprise party at the top of a _____ noun . Betty's day has been long and stressful; however, now she's happy celebrating her birthday with her friends. Plus the best present she got was a giant _____ noun in the color _____ adjective !

Although Bettys day was very eventful what did you learn about Burrowing owls?